FAQs during the test

1. The question paper includes other LOT questions as well e.g. JBoss paper has RDBMS questions.

Ans: All L3 question papers (of any LOT) would contain small %age of basic L1, L2 questions and L2 question papers would contain small %age of basic L1 questions as mentioned on KX site and also in sample questions.

2. The answer of question should be multiple but it is allowing to choose only one option.

Ans: If it is allowing only one option that means the answer is not multiple but just one option is the correct answer.

3. The correct answers is multiple hence choosing 3 out of four given options would be correct but if I know only 2 of them, and so answer only 2 would I get proportionate marks?

Ans: No, You need to select all the right answers.

4. If you feel that the question is wrong or the answer options are not correct etc., please tell your invigilator about the same and ask them to note down the question description. Go ahead with the answer you feel as correct. We will later check with respective LOT leads and revert.
